Criterion 7 - Institutional Values and Best Practices

7.1.4 Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal, socio-economic and other diversities

Inclusiveness in letter and spirit towards diversities is the hallmark of our institution. As the students come from different linguistic, cultural, regional and religious backgrounds, the institution by understanding the diversity, tries to initiate measures to ensure an inclusive environment in the institution.

1. Promotion of Diversity in Culture:

The following activities are organised to promote cultural diversity

- Vibrations, an inter-college cultural festival is conducted among TSWRDCs to promote cultural diversity. Cultural and literary events/competitions are conducted as part of the programme.

7.1.4 Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens.

Sensitising students to become self-disciplined, responsible citizens and complete human beings are major objectives of our college. We inculcate desirable values and aspirations among the students for nation building by various means. To reach such goals, the institution organises diverse activities and programmes to focus on students, faculty and staff on constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens.

1. Activities organised to promote Constitutional Obligations:

- Every year, Constitution Day is celebrated on 26th November to create awareness among the students on the significance of the constitution.
- Voters' Day is organised on 25th January to sensitise the students towards the democratic process.
- Voter enrolment campaigns were organised with the students who had attained the age of 18 to cast their votes. This Campaign has spread the electoral responsibility of the citizens. Voter enrolment process was collaborated with the support of Mandal Revenue Department.
- Human Rights Day is celebrated on 10th December.
- Celebration of Republic Day and Independence Day make the students committed towards the national building.

7.1.4 Institution celebrates/organizes national and international commemorative days, events and festivals.

Learning about great personalities makes one humble and inspires to achieve more and serve more for one's country. Remembering great protagonists of our country and the world on the day of their birthday is part of our calendar. Events on such days are so arranged that the events leave the participants more humble and crave to serve the society, nation and the world.

A few days that are commemorated are mentioned

Independence Day, Republic Day and Telangana formation Day are conducted by hoisting the National Flag.

- All the major national festivals are celebrated with fervour and patriotic zeal in the campus. The parade and the guard of honour by the NCC cadets help imbibe nationalistic values among the students.
- Mahatma Gandhi Jayanthi is celebrated to commemorate great ideas such as truth, non-violence.
- Jyothi Ba Phule and Savithri Bai Phule's birthdays are celebrated every year. These days mark indefatigable efforts for the rights of the marginalised and underprivileged sections of the society and on the importance of women education.
- Staff and students take oath to rededicate themselves to the betterment of the world. Institution-level programmes are organised during the protection and conservation of the environment.
- By celebrating National Sports Day, students are sensitised towards the Physical Education.
- Programmes such as quiz, elocution etc. were conducted on the birth day of the architect of Indian Constitution, Dr B R Ambedkar.
- Teacher's Day is celebrated on the birth day of Dr. Sarvepally Radhakrishnan.
- International Yoga Day is celebrated every year on 21st June. Importance of Yoga for physical and mental well-being is taught.

The institution strongly believes that the celebrations of these days promote integrity, strive for human dignity, protect the environment and endeavour for peace and harmony.
